GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

Marwari College, Darbhanga has strived towards excellence in the field of learning. Since its inception, the college has given due prominence to attaining vision and transforming that vision into the mission. The vision was to provide an inclusive education to all strata of society in all the major disciplines. It's noteworthy that the college had succeeded in giving education to all eligible students, but the mission to provide quality education has not yielded the desirable result as the college had suffered the incapacity as many teachers retired and it was not filled up. The recent appointments of permanent teachers through B.P.S.C and guest teachers by the University have made the situation better though not adequate. Teaching and non-teaching staff strive hard to realize the vision. The focus has been to amalgamate quality teaching with inclusivity. Energetic teachers have gone the extra mile in impressing upon the competent authority to introduce changes in the style and technique of their pedagogy.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The Institution has a structured mechanism of providing autonomy to various functionaries working in the institution. The principal is the head of the institution. The principal in consultation with representative bodies nominates members from teaching and nonteaching communities to the committees, some of which are statutory and the rest have been created to assist the smooth functioning of the college. Every year, the composition of different committees is changed and renewed to ensure the uniform exposure of duties to teachers and nonteaching communities. Some of the prominent Cells constituted as per the norms are as follows: 1. Anti-ragging Cell 2. Grievance Redressal Cell 3. Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) 4. Career Counseling Cell 5. Sports Committee 6. Sale Purchase Committee 7. Library Committee 8. IQAC Cell 9. Proctorial Committee 10. NSS Cell 11. Examination Cell 12. Women's Cell 13. Committee for SC/ST 14. 6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The College conducts an induction program and plans to make it more elaborate. Human Resource Management: Teachers and non-teaching staff are explained in details of their rights and responsibilities. Members are trained to take up multiple roles and responsibilities. Teachers are encouraged to undergo faculty development programs to enhance their teaching capabilities. Non-teaching staff are given opportunities to enhance their computing/managerial skills through institutional/ non-institutional mode. Curriculum Development: Some of the teachers of this college have been a part of the Curriculum Revision Committee of the University and have contributed to curriculum development. Teaching and Learning: Teachers use the methodology coupled with practical exposure to the students. The use of computer lab and Language labs to enhance the skills of students is encouraged. Examination and Evaluation: The practical and theory examinations are conducted internally for 30% assessment only. The rest part of the assessment is conducted by the University. Most of the teachers participate in the Examination and evaluation process carried out by the universities. Research and Development: Teachers are encouraged to write qualitative research papers, chapters, and books in their relevant and possibly interdisciplinary areas of research. Library, ICT, and Physical Infrastructure / Instrumentation Books are procured after due consultation with different departments/bodies. There is growing emphasis laid on the use of ICT in daily operation and curriculum delivery. Physical infrastructure and laboratory instruments are regularly upgraded.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

The Institution has established a mechanism for conducting internal audits on the financial transactions every year to ensure financial compliance by qualified chartered accountants, with the assistance of a financial committee. Internal audit includes recurring expenses such as salary, electricity, internet charges, maintenance cost, stationery, other consumable charges, etc., and non-recurring expenses like lab equipment purchases, furniture, and other development expenses. The auditor ensures that all payments are duly authorized after the audit. The income and expenditures are verified and submitted to the principal. External audits are conducted by the University when decided by the administration. If any objection is raised by the auditor it is to be revisited and settled within a stipulated time, as decided by the principal. No specific objection was raised during the audit. Suggestions provided by the auditor are incorporated in the next plans and strategies.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Marwari College, Darbhanga had huge responsibility of fulfilling the need of students with constrains. College faced faculty crunch during the period. With very low computer density it was very difficult to prepare for the online study materials for the students. All the teachers prepared soft version of the study material and the administrative staffs cooperated in managing and uploading it. Greater contribution was from the side of the students who with limited resources followed the study material, responded with queries and enriched themselves with the knowledge.

It was the time when the university was under pressure to carry out academic calendar. Students prepared and appeared for exams following the COVID guidelines and were successful in large number.
